PRESS RELEASE

15 December 1995

Christopher J Buckland has resigned both as a director and shareholder of Buckland Dix & Wood Ltd in order to concentrate fully on his book retailing and publishing business based in East Sussex.

Christopher Alex Webb has been appointed a Director of Buckland Dix & Wood Ltd. He has been with the company for three years during which time he has successfully established the company as one of London's major coin auction houses. In 1995 Buckland Dix & Wood handled nearly 50% of the numismatic material sold on the London market. 10 sales are scheduled for the new year.

James M Grist MA (Oxon) has joined the company as Director of Philatelic Auctions and will spearhead a new direction for the company in the stamp world. His reputation and knowledge has been widely recognised over the past 15 years during his time with both Phillips and Harms in London. His first sale will be held in Spring 1996 and already contains an important collection.

Nicholas JA Wood who has held a minority interest from the beginning will continue to do so.

In reflection of the above changes the company name will shortly be changed to Dix & Webb Ltd and will continue to be at the forefront in sales of Military Medals, Coins and Stamps in London.

CHARLES II, Crown, 1664, second bust, XVI, seven harp strings, no stop before DEI (SC 70). Very fine, toned (£200-240)

Two bust variations exist for this year. Perhaps the most noticeable difference is the the ribbon: on some examples it is shorter and curlier, on others it is straighter and a little longer. This coin is the latter. (See the Willis Collection, part II for illustrations of the two variants).

In describing this coin, although quoting the new SC numbers, we have retained the sequence of busts assigned by ESC as this is the arrangement most collectors and dealers are still most familiar with at present.

The artist, Louis Patriarche, was a staunch Corsican, born at Bastia

FRANCE, Clemenceau, a bronze medal, c.1960, unsigned, head of tiger with teeth bared, reverse aircraft carrier with jet taking off from its deck, 60mm (CGMP –); together with other bronze medals relating to World War I (6), by Legastelois, Vernier, Huguenin, Prud'homme, etc. [7]. Generally very fine (£30-40)

The first medal probably relates to the launch of the aircraft carrier Clemenceau in 1961, the tiger being symbolic of Clemenceau's nickname. For another medal of the same subject by G. Guiraud, see CGMP p.880

FRANCE, Inauguration of Orly Airport, Paris, 1961, bronze medal by Henri Dropsey, 65mm. About extremely fine, some discolouration (£15-20)

286

GERMANY, Dr. Siegfried Meyer, Burgmaster of Greifswald, 1827, copper medal by C. Pfeuffer for Loos, reverse griffin, 50mm; together with Marriage of Charles Alexander, Duke of Saxe-Weimar-Eisenach, to Princess Wilhelmina Sophie, 1842, copper medal by D. van der Kellen, 48mm (Dirks 605; BDM III, 134); bronze medal by O. Oertel, 34mm, Military Expedition to Gulik, 1616, copper jeton (Dugniolle 3727); and a German bronze plaque, 1930, with cord for suspension [4]. Very fine and better (£40-50)

287

GERMANY, Kurt M. Hirschland, 1930, a large cast bronze medal, unsigned, bust left, reverse leaping stags coming out of a forest, ZUM 20 ii 1930 below, 140mm. A very heavy medal of rather primitive style yet retaining a certain charm, very fine and as made (£30-50)

The cataloguer cannot recall seeing another specimen; this example was acquired by the present vendor in 1976

288

GERMANY, 150th Anniversary of the firm of Krupp of Bohlen and Halbach, 1961, a large cast bronze uniface plaque, unsigned, busts of Friedrich and Alfried Krupp vis-à-vis, 213 x 147mm. About extremely fine; with hook for suspension on the back (£20-40)

289

ITALY, 500th Anniversary of Milan Cathedral, 1886, gilt-bronze medal after F. Broggi, bust of John Galeatius, right, reverse Cathedral, 47mm; BELGIUM, Paul Bonduelle, 1935, laudatory bronze medal by P. Bonnetain, 61mm; Jan van Neck, 1935, laudatory bronze medal by P. Bonnetain, 60mm; other miscellaneous medals, etc., related to architecture (11). [14]. Very fine and better, the van Neck medal with attractive chocolate patina (£30-50)

Jan van Neck was the Chief Architect on the overall 1935 Brussels Expo committee; Paul Bonduelle was the Chief Architect to the Belgian section of that Expo

MONACO, Société Canine de Monaco, c.1910, Art Nouveau award medals by Charlotte Bertrand (2, one gilt, other silver-plated), each showing a group of dogs seated and standing, with a chair and a chaise-longue, un-named, 40mm. [2]. Very fine and better (£20-40)

Charlotte Emilie Stephanie Bertrand, Parisian sculptor, specialised in children and animal subjects. Gilt medal only illustrated

NETHERLANDS, George, Count of Egmont and Bishop of Utrecht, Aged 54, 1558, a cast uniface lead portrait medal by Steven van Herwijck, half-length figure to left in biretta, wearing robes and holding gloves, 146mm (v.L. I, 46; Van Mieris II, 403; KPK 153-4; Simonis p.192; BDM VII, 446). A very fine aftercast with slight 'crispening up' of the legends, believed to be late 16th or early 17th century, but nevertheless extremely rare and important (£500-700)

George, Count of Egmont (1504-59), a firm opponent of Lutheran reforms in the Netherlands, was installed as Bishop of Utrecht in 1535. The medal of him by van Herwijck is among that artist's earliest work, produced in Utrecht in 1558; van Herwijck came to England in 1562 and 1565, where he made several medals, including one of Elizabeth I.

Six other examples of this medal have previously been published, four of which are in public collections (Belgian National Collection, lead; Archiepiscopal Museum, Utrecht, tin; Kunsthistorisches Museum, Vienna, bronze, illustrated by Stephen K. Scher in The Currency of Fame: Portrait medals of the Renaissance; Netherlands National Collection, Leyden, an aftercast). The remaining two specimens have both been on the market in recent times, a silver restitution or cast of somewhat later date first offered at Glendining's, 6 June 1990, lot 648, and subsequently at Bonham's, 27 Oct. 1995, lot 269 (£1700); and a bronze example in Sotheby's, 30 March 1995, lot 735 (£11,000, bought by the NNC, Leyden).

At least one other uniface striking in silver, thought to have been made c.1600, also exists (British Museum); the present lead specimen displays many similarities with it in terms of the lettering and in other minor detail.

Illustration reduced.

Conditions of Business

Conditions mainly concerning buyers

1 The buyer

The highest bidder shall be the buyer at the 'hammer price' and any dispute shall be settled at the auctioneer's absolute discretion. Every bidder shall be deemed to act as principal unless there is in force a written acknowledgement by Dix & Webb Ltd (hereafter 'Dix & Webb') that he acts as agent on behalf of a named principal.

2 Minimum increment

The auctioneer shall have the right to refuse any bid which does not exceed the previous bid by at least 5 percent or by such other proportion as the auctioneer shall in his absolute discretion direct.

3 The premium

The buyer shall pay to Dix & Webb a premium of 11.75% on the 'hammer price' inclusive of a sum in lieu of Value Added Tax at the standard rate and agrees that Dix & Webb, when acting as agent for the seller, may also receive commission from the seller in accordance with Condition 15.

4 Value Added Tax (VAT)

Lots on which Value Added Tax is payable by the buyer on the 'hammer price' are indicated in the catalogue with the sign '+' or 'x'; indicating a liability of 17.5% and 2.5% respectively.

5 Payment

Immediately a lot is sold the buyer shall:—

- (a) give to Dix & Webb his name and address and, if so requested, proof of identity; and
- (b) pay to Dix & Webb the 'total amount due' (unless credit terms have been agreed with Dix & Webb before the auction).

6 Dix & Webb may, at its absolute discretion, agree credit terms with the buyer before an auction under which the buyer will be entitled to take possession of lots purchased up to an agreed amount in value in advance of payment by a determined future date of the 'total amount due'.

7 Any payments by a buyer to Dix & Webb may be applied by Dix & Webb towards any sums owing from that buyer to Dix & Webb on any account whatever without regard to any directions of the buyer or his agent, whether express or implied.

8 Collection of purchases

The ownership of the lot purchased shall not pass to the buyer until he has made payment in full to Dix & Webb of the 'total amount due'.

9 (a) The buyer shall at his own expense take away the lot purchased not later than 5 working days after the day of the auction but (unless credit terms have been agreed in accordance with Condition 7) not before payment to Dix & Webb of the 'total amount due'.

(b) The buyer shall be responsible for any removal, storage and insurance charges on any lot not taken away within 5 working days after the day of the auction.

(c) The packing and handling of purchased lots by Dix & Webb staff is undertaken solely as a courtesy to clients and in the case of fragile articles, will be undertaken only at Dix & Webb's discretion. In no event will Dix & Webb be liable for damage to glass or frames, regardless of the cause.

10 Buyers' responsibilities for Lots purchased

The buyer will be responsible for loss or damage to lots purchased from the time of collection or the expiry of 5 working days after the day of the auction, whichever is the sooner, and neither Dix & Webb nor its servants or agents shall thereafter be responsible for any loss or damage of any kind, whether caused by negligence or otherwise, while any lot is in its custody or under its control.

11 Remedies for non-payment or failure to collect purchases

If any lot is not paid for in full and taken away in accordance with Conditions 6 and 10, or if there is any other breach of either of those Conditions, Dix & Webb as agent of the seller shall, at its absolute discretion and without prejudice to any other rights it may have, be entitled to exercise one or more of the following rights and remedies:—

- (a) to proceed against the buyer for damages for breach of contract.
- (b) to rescind the sale of that or any other lots sold to the defaulting buyer at the same or any other auction.
- (c) to re-sell the lot or cause it to be re-sold by public auction or private sale and the defaulting buyer shall pay to Dix & Webb any resulting deficiency in the 'total amount due' after deduction of any part payment and addition of re-sale costs and any surplus shall belong to the seller.
- (d) to remove, store and insure the lot at the expense of the defaulting buyer and, in the case of storage, either at Dix & Webb premises or elsewhere.
- (e) to charge interest at a rate not exceeding 1.5% per month on the 'total amount due' to the extent it remains unpaid for more than 5 working days after the day of the auction.
- (f) to retain that or any other lot sold to the same buyer at the sale or any other auction and release it only after payment of the 'total amount due'.
- (g) to reject or ignore any bids made by or on behalf of the defaulting buyer at any future auctions or obtain a deposit before accepting any bids in future.
- (h) to apply any proceeds of sale then due or at any time thereafter becoming due to the defaulting buyer towards settlement of the 'total amount due' and to exercise a lien on any property of the defaulting buyer which is in Dix & Webb's possession for any purpose.

12 Liability of Dix & Webb and Sellers

(a) Goods auctioned are usually of some age. All goods are sold with all faults and imperfections and errors of description. Illustrations in catalogues are for identification only. Buyers should satisfy themselves prior to sale as to the condition of each lot and should exercise and rely on their own judgement as to whether the lot accords with its description. Subject to the obligations accepted by Dix & Webb under this Condition, none of the seller, Dix & Webb, its servants or agents is responsible for errors of descriptions or for the genuineness or authenticity of any lot, no warranty whatever is given by Dix & Webb, its servants or agents, or any seller to any buyer in respect of any lot and any express or implied conditions or warranties are hereby excluded.

(b) Any lot which proves to be a 'deliberate forgery' may be returned by the buyer to Dix & Webb within 15 days of the date of the auction in the same condition in which it was at the time of the auction, accompanied by a statement of defects, the number of the lot, and the date of the auction at which it was purchased. If Dix & Webb is satisfied that the item is a 'deliberate forgery' and that the buyer has and is able to transfer a good and marketable title to the lot free from any third party claims, the sale will be set aside and any amount paid in respect of the lot will be refunded: Provided that the buyer shall have no rights under this Condition if:—

(i) the description in the catalogue at the date of the sale was in accordance with the then generally accepted opinion of scholars and experts or fairly indicated that there was a conflict of such opinion; or

(ii) the only method of establishing at the date of publication of the catalogue that the lot was a 'deliberate forgery' was by means of scientific processes not generally accepted for use until after publication of the catalogue or a process which was unreasonably expensive or impractical.

(iii) A buyer's claim under this Condition shall be limited to any amount paid in respect of the lot and shall not extend to any loss or damage suffered or expense incurred by him.

(iv) The benefit of the Condition shall not be assignable and shall rest solely and exclusively in the buyer who, for the purpose of this condition, shall be and only be the person to whom the original invoice is made out by Dix & Webb in respect of the lot sold.

Conditions mainly concerning sellers and consignors

13 Warranty of Title and Availability

The seller warrants to Dix & Webb and to the buyer that he is the true owner of the property or is properly authorised to sell the property by the true owner and is able to transfer good and marketable title to the property free from any third party claims. The seller will indemnify Dix & Webb, its servants and agents and the buyer against any loss or damage suffered by either in consequence of any breach on the part of the seller.

14 Reserves

The seller shall be entitled to place prior to the auction a reserve on any lot, being the minimum 'hammer price' at which that lot may be treated as sold. A reserve once placed by the seller shall not be changed without the consent of Dix & Webb. Dix & Webb may at their option sell at a 'hammer price' below the reserve but in any such cases the sale proceeds to which the seller is entitled shall be the same as they would have been had the sale been at the reserve. Where a reserve has been placed, only the auctioneer may bid on behalf of the seller.

15 Authority to Deduct Commission and Expenses

The seller authorises Dix & Webb to deduct commission at the 'stated rate' and 'expenses' from the 'hammer price' and acknowledge Dix & Webb's right to retain the premium payable by the buyer.

16 Recession of Sale

If before Dix & Webb remit the 'sale proceeds' to the seller, the buyer makes a claim to rescind the sale that is appropriate and Dix & Webb is of the opinion that the claim is justified, Dix & Webb is authorised to rescind the sale and refund to the buyer any amount paid to Dix & Webb in respect of the lot.

17 Payment of Sale Proceeds

Dix & Webb shall remit the 'sale proceeds' to the seller not later than 35 days after the auction, but if by that date Dix & Webb has not received the 'total amount due' from the buyer then Dix & Webb will remit the sale proceeds within five working days after the date on which the 'total amount due' is received from the buyer. If credit terms have been agreed between Dix & Webb and the buyer, Dix & Webb shall remit to the seller the sale proceeds not later than 35 days after the auction unless otherwise agreed by the seller.

18 If the buyer fails to pay to Dix & Webb the 'total amount due' within 3 weeks after the auction, Dix & Webb will endeavour to notify the seller and take the seller's instructions as to the appropriate course of action and, so far as in Dix & Webb's opinion is practicable, will assist the seller to recover the 'total amount due' from the buyer. If circumstances do not permit Dix & Webb to take instructions from the seller, the seller authorises Dix & Webb at the seller's expense to agree special terms for payment of the 'total amount due', to remove, store and insure the lot sold, to settle claims made by or against the buyer on such terms as Dix & Webb shall in its absolute discretion think fit, to take such steps as are necessary to collect monies due by the buyer to the seller and if necessary to rescind the sale and refund money to the buyer.

19 If, notwithstanding that the buyer fails to pay to Dix & Webb the 'total amount due' within three weeks after the auction, Dix & Webb remits the 'sale proceeds' to the seller, the ownership of the lot shall pass to Dix & Webb.

20 Charges for Withdrawn Lots

Where a seller cancels instructions for sale, Dix & Webb reserve the right to charge a fee of 15% of Dix & Webb's then latest estimate or middle estimate of the auction price of the property withdrawn, together with Value Added Tax thereon and 'expenses' incurred in relation to the property.

21 Rights to Photographs and Illustrations

The seller gives Dix & Webb full and absolute right to photograph and illustrate any lot placed in its hands for sale and to use such photographs and illustrations and any photographs and illustrations provided by the seller at any time at its absolute discretion (whether or not in connection with the auction).

22 Unsold Lots

Where any lot fails to sell, Dix & Webb shall notify the seller accordingly. The seller shall make arrangements either to re-offer the lot for sale or to collect the lot.

23 Dix & Webb reserve the right to charge commission up to one-half of the 'stated rates' calculated on the 'bought-in price' and in addition 'expenses' in respect of any unsold lots.

General conditions and definitions

24 Dix & Webb sells as agent for the seller (except where it is stated wholly or partly to own any lot as principal) and as such is not responsible for any default by seller or buyer.

25 Any representation or statement by Dix & Webb, in any catalogue as to authorship, attribution, genuineness, origin, date, age, provenance, condition or estimated selling price is a statement of opinion only. Every person interested should exercise and rely on his own judgement as to such matters and neither Dix & Webb nor its servants or agents are responsible for the correctness of such opinions.

26 Whilst the interests of prospective buyers are best served by attendance at the auction, Dix & Webb will, if so instructed, execute bids on their behalf, neither Dix & Webb nor its servants or agents being responsible for any neglect or default in doing so or for failing to do so.

27 Dix & Webb shall have the right, at its discretion, to refuse admission to its premises or attendance at its auctions by any person.

28 Dix & Webb has absolute discretion without giving any reason to refuse any bid, to divide any lot, to combine any two or more lots, to withdraw any lot from the auction and in case of dispute to put up any lot for auction again.

29 (a) Any indemnity under these Conditions shall extend to all actions, proceedings costs, expenses, claims and demands whatever incurred or suffered by the person entitled to the benefit of the indemnity.

(b) Dix & Webb declares itself to be a trustee for its relevant servants and agents of the benefit of every indemnity under these Conditions to the extent that such indemnity is expressed to be for the benefit of its servants and agents.

30 Any notice by Dix & Webb to a seller, consignor, prospective bidder or buyer may be given by first class mail or airmail and if so given shall be deemed to have been duly received by the addressee 48 hours after posting.

31 These Conditions shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English law. All transactions to which these Conditions apply and all matters connected therewith shall also be governed by English law. Dix & Webb hereby submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts and all other parties concerned hereby submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.

32 In these Conditions:—

(a) 'catalogue' includes any advertisement, brochure, estimate, price list and other publication.

(b) 'hammer price' means the price at which a lot is knocked down by the auctioneer to the buyer.

(c) 'total amount due' means the 'hammer price' in respect of the lot sold together with any premium, Value Added Tax chargeable and additional charges and expenses due from a defaulting buyer in pounds sterling;

(d) 'deliberate forgery' means an imitation made with the intention of deceiving as to authorship, origin, date, age, period, culture or source which is not shown to be such in the description in the catalogue and which at the date of the sale had a value materially less than it would have had if it had been in accordance with that description.

(e) 'sale proceeds' means the net amount due to the seller being the 'hammer price' of the lot sold less commission at the 'stated rates' and 'expenses' and any other amounts due to Dix & Webb by the seller in whatever capacity and howsoever rising.

(f) 'stated rate' means Dix & Webb published rates of commission for the time being and a sum in lieu of Value Added Tax thereon.

(g) 'expenses' in relation to the sale of any lot means Dix & Webb charges and expenses for insurance, illustrations, special advertising, packing and freight of that lot and any Value Added Tax thereon.

(h) 'bought-in price' means 5 percent more than the highest bid received below the reserve.

33 Vendors' Commission on Sales

A commission of 15% is payable by the vendor on the hammer price on lots sold.

34 VAT

Commission, illustrations, insurance and advertising are subject to VAT at the standard rate where appropriate.
